CORNELL UP AGAINST GEORGETOWN AGAIN

Ball Club Faces Possibility of Another Defeat on the Hill-top Tomorrow.

SHAKE-UP DUE THE ITHACANS

Chris Fienle Displays Rare Judgment in the Use of His Curve Ball.

Georgetown and Cornell University will try conclusions again tomorrow afternoon at the Hilltop, the Ithaca team endeavoring to land a victory after the 8-3 defeat of yesterday. Cornell has dropped the last three games on its Southern trip and a shakeup is due unless something better is displayed.

Hennesty, Georgetown's second sacker, is the sensation of the Hilltop today. The new man getting into the game for the first time this season, immediately began clinching the job for himself and in the endeavor to make himself solid with Coach Harley, drove out two hits, figured in several pretty plays and got into the game in earnest.

Chris Fienle pitched creditably all the way, using a curve ball with judgment and keeping Ithaca all his own way all the time. Cornell did not get a look in until the last two innings, when Fienle was disposed to take things more or less easy.

Five errors by the Cornell players contributed to the loss made by Georgetown, which showed improvement in batting. The score:

Georgetown.....10120022X-310
Cornell.....000000021-375
Batteries—Fienle and Mullany; Acheson and Shreck. Umpire—Mr. Hughes.

Martin Leonard Will Wrestle Here Wednesday

Probably no wrestler whom George Peck, of the Gayety Theater, has brought to Washington to meet Joe Turner, the local middleweight, and holder of the Police Gazette belt in that weight, has the reputation for winning matches that is boasted of by Martin Leonard, of Sweden, who will face Joe at the Gayety next Wednesday night. Leonard has been a professional brawler about a year ago, when he got the better of his match with Turner. Leonard has been a professional brawler about a year ago, when he got the better of his match with Turner. Congressman Reed Gets Honor at First Shoot Congressman E. E. Reed, New Hampshire, today gets the honor of having led all the gunners in the first shoot of the Annapolis Gun Club. The New Hampshire man broke 88 out of 100 targets.

E. W. Ford was second in line, as he broke 87 targets out of the same number, while Capt. George W. Peck, Jr., scored 82 out of 100. James M. Green killed 81 birds out of 120. Green started off well, but fell badly later in the afternoon, when the wind grew stronger.

Leut. G. M. Baum, also a new member, led among those who shot at fifty targets, as he brought down 40, with Miles Taylor second, having broken 38.

Clark Griffith Is Owner of "Michigan"

Clark Griffith, the peerless leader of the Climbers, is now a full-fledged motorist. He has purchased a Michigan "40" touring car from the Proby Car Company, and handles it like a veteran. The machine is fully equipped with electric lights, electric self-starter, and other little things that add to the pleasures of motoring. The car is finished in black with dark upholstery, and the door panels in solid adorns the door panels.

American Teams Will Make Lengthy Tour

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—Announcement has been made here by James E. Sullivan, secretary-treasurer of the Amateur Athletic Union, that an all-American track and field team would visit Australia and New Zealand this year. The team will leave for Australia in December and return in April. William Umack, a writer on amateur sports on the Pacific coast, the native of Australia, will manage the team.

HONOR MEN AGAIN STARTING IN TIMES-NEWS MARATHON

But One Runner of First Ten in Last Year's Event Out of the Running Saturday.

With one exception every runner of the first eleven who finished in the record breaking Marathon race held last year has again sent in his entry for The Times-News race to be held Saturday, April 12, from Laurel to Washington.

The one exception is John J. Campbell, the Memorial A. C. crack whose entry was turned down on account of the fact that at present he is under the A. A. U. ban. All of the others who took part in the historic run from Laurel to Baltimore, where the run finished last year, have again decided to take a flier at the game and a chance at the prize.

Frank A. Ruth, whose record of 2 hours, 9 minutes, 6 seconds was made in the race last year, will lead the Baltimore Cross country athletes to the mark at Laurel on Saturday. Ruth is in exceptional form, and bids fair to better his performance.

John Bolac, the Carroll Institute runner, who pushed Ruth to the limit to win last year, and who ran under the colors of the Washington Cross Country Club, will be the mark in the best of condition. Today Bolac will run over the course from Laurel to Hyattsville, and as he has bettered his time by five minutes in a previous workout should do even better today.

Bolac and Williams in.

Bolac, with Robert Williams of the Washington A. A., is the hope of the Washington contingent. He is in the pink of condition and means to come back at Ruth for the victory snatched from him in the last mile of the race last year. Bolac led nearly to the finish line last year when Ruth clinched on the city outskirts and managed to win in a driving finish.

Henry Elphinstone, running unattached, who last year ran third and the year previous won the race which finished here in Washington, will again go to the mark. Recently Elphinstone conceded liberal odds to the runners who had finished the ten-mile race with the best time of the day to his credit.

Elphy is a veteran of many years' standing. Of peculiar build and ambling gait, he manages to cover ground at a heart-breaking pace, and can be counted upon to finish well up in front. Last year Elphinstone was run off his feet by Arthur Holcomb, the Canadian, in the Laurel-to-Baltimore race, and was unable to get better than third place.

The year before that, when the athletes finished here in Washington, Elphinstone led the pack from Laurel, and won a rather tame race of it. He cut out an awful pace, maintained it while others fell back into the rack, and won as he pleased.

Campbell was fourth.

Last year Campbell was fourth, but will watch the others this year, as he has gotten into difficulty with the Amateur Athletic Union, and has been laid off for a six months' period. Campbell was counting upon entering the race this year, but was forced out of it at a meeting of the board of managers of the union held here last week.

McKenna, of the St. Andrew's Gymnasium last year, will again take up the running for Idelwild Club, of Baltimore. He is a plugging runner, has plenty of endurance, and may be found again in front with the leaders.

Egan A. Geller, a Baltimore man, whose half-mile races this winter have stamped him as one of the best in this section of the country, is to run this year.

Last year's race found Geller sixth at the finish line, and he has improved to such an extent this year that he is being counted upon as the dark horse of the race. It is not unlikely that the Baltimore Cross Country runner, with greater stamina and a sprint developed during the winter, will be able to show all the others a few things when it comes to taking the fast trail in from Laurel on Saturday.

Bernard Brewer and Freddie Baer, both of Baltimore, who finished eighth and ninth, will start with the pack again. Both are expected to run unattached while Baer is representing his old club, the Baltimore Cross Country Club, expecting to be again up in the running when the Marathoners reach the finish line on Saturday.

List Is the Same.

When the long list of runners is looked over there appears to be about the same list as that which made up the personnel of the entries last year. Many have thought seriously of taking up the game after their experience last year and have gotten into the running.

Laurel Plays Relay In Season's Opener

LAUREL, Md., April 6.—Relay will oppose Laurel in the first game of the season to be played Saturday. The Laurel team has organized for the season and expects to place a strong aggregation in the field. The management is anxious to fill several dates with teams in the District.

The line-up is announced as follows: Duvall, third base; Timanus, left field; Warner, center field; Dillard, right field; Scott, shortstop; first base; Ellis or Stockman, shortstop; Kaiser or Haslop, right field; Fulton or Stockman, catcher, and Souder, pitcher.

"Buster" Souder, who has had several active offers from minor league teams, is a dependable pitcher. With Warner to assist Souder, Manager Stockman has a good staff.

Joe Massaguer Is On Way to Havana

Joe Massaguer, the Havana newspaperman, who recommended Jacinto Calvo to the Climbers, and accompanied the two young Cubans to this country, left for home today by way of Mobile, where he will tarry for a day or so. Now Calvo and Acosta will have to get along on the little English they know, and will be able to pick up, as Massaguer has been their interpreter since they joined the team at Charlottesville.

with a will with the result that several novices of last year may be found among the winners this time.

At present there are more than 100 entries for the Times-News classic and there is every indication that all of the men will turn out on Saturday. Every year a few get discouraged, many have cold feet as the date of the race appears and many excuses are found for not showing up at Laurel when the race starts.

Every detail of the race is well in hand and the athletes will find that they will be taken care of in good shape. Washington and Baltimore men are advised to be on hand at Laurel at an early hour. There are good connections from both cities to the Maryland town and the boys can feel sure of getting there in good time for the race, which starts at 10 o'clock sharp.

The runners will be taken care of at the Laurel Hotel. Mr. Selling having assured that everything will be in good order for the athletes. Ample time will be provided for the runners to change to their running clothes and a room has been provided for cubing.

It is essential that each piece of luggage be turned over to the Times representative, who will see that it is turned over to the athletes when they arrive at the Luber Turkish Bath, Fifteenth and G streets, where the athletes are to be taken to the conclusion of the race.

Starts Promptly.

The race will start at 10 o'clock. Each runner will be given his number, with pins to fix to his jersey. The baggage will be handed over to the Times man, who will be with it from the time it is turned in to him until he releases it at the Luber baths. All athletes will be responsible for their own baggage until it is turned in to the Times man, who will present each man with a check for his bag.

The route into Washington is plainly marked, so that no mistake can be made.

Wins Pitchers' Battle.

WEST POINT, N. Y., April 6.—Newland, the Army pitcher, won a battle from Hook, of Dickinson, yesterday, the soldiers taking the game, 2 to 1. Hook gave two hits and Newland allowed four.

Former Winners and Those in the First Ten Again to Hook Up for Distance Race.

made as to the roads. The athletes will simply follow the macadam road which leads from Laurel to Beltsville, on through Berwyn, Hyattsville to Bladensburg, and thence running in on the pike which leads straight to the District line. From there the boys will continue to Fifteenth and H streets north-east, where a turn will be made on to Maryland avenue.

Running straight up to B street and Maryland avenue, beyond the tunnel, will continue down the Capitol grounds and through there, striking the Peace Monument and continue to the finish line. The distance is 19.4 miles.

Automobiles will follow the runners throughout the race. The instructions will be printed later, which will give trains to be taken, time of the physical examination, C. C. A. time to report to the clerk of course at Laurel, instructions about filing applications for C. C. A. registration and the other minor details of the race. The list of entries follows:

Gallaudet Football Dates Acceptable

The eight games scheduled by Gallaudet for the football season may be augmented by two more, although the athletic committee finds the schedule submitted by Manager Patterson entirely acceptable.

But two games will be played on the Gallaudet gridiron. A number of new teams are found on the schedule, which follows:

October 4, Washington and Lee, at Lynchburg, Va.; at Richmond College, at Richmond, Va.; at Baltimore City College, at Kendall Green; at Rock Hill College, at Kendall Green.
November 1, November 1, Maryland College, at Westminster, Md.; Wake Forest College, at Raleigh, N. C.; at American League Park, at College Park, Md.

Easy for Tech.

Tech is claiming a record today, having defeated Frederick High by 29 to 0. The local high school team managed to steal twenty bases and got twenty hits.

Tomorrow's Sports
Giants at Nationals' Park.
Braves at Baltimore.
Cleveland at Birmingham.
White Sox at St. Joe, Mo.
Athletics at Norfolk.
Yankees at Brooklyn.
Ornell vs. Georgetown, here.
Columbia vs. Amherst, at New York.

IF ARM ENDURES BIRMY WILL PLAY

Naplander Captain Not Yet Sure of Line-up for Thursday.

NEW ORLEANS, La., April 6.—Manager Birmingham is still trying to arrange out the Naps' line-up for the opening game. On the condition of Birmy's throwing arm will depend the line-up for the inaugural battle, and Birmy is wild to get in the game. With the Nap leader doing active duty, the line-up will be as follows: Johnston, first base; Chapman, shortstop; Turner, third base; Jackson, right field; Lajoie, second base; Birmingham, center field; Graneley, left field; Land catcher.

Leibold May Lead Off.
If Birmy decides to view the proceedings from the bench, Leibold will lead off and Johnston will follow Lajoie in the batting order.

Mitchell has shown the best form of the pitcher, and probably will sink his opening fray. Leibold is getting along nicely, but Birmy fears to place a youngster with only two years' experience in the lead-off position. That is why he probably will plant himself in the central garden not in the above-offer game. It's almost a safe bet that he will be on the job. The stories being sent north about the speed Larry is showing on the bases are not wild and woolly yarns. Nap has been beating out bunts and moving from first to third on infield outs, which shows that his two pedals must be in good trim. He also has been covering more ground than usual, which is right which is another indication that he is fit as a fiddle physically.

Birmy Handles Men Right.

Birmingham has increased the efficiency of the players both as a team and as individuals by not trying to let the automatic, although he never overlooks a point. He does not burden players with advice. Neither does he try to change a player's style in a week. His methods have added greatly to Mitchell's efficiency as a pitcher, and eventually will make a reliable hurler of Nick Cullip, who will be given ample time to wear off some of the green he brought with him from the minors. His methods also have caused Ray Chapman to develop into a much better shortstop. There will be none better in the country this season. Doer Johnston shows improvement along various lines, thanks to Birmingham's wise and careful methods. Nap fans will see a marvelous change in the team. The variety of baseball played by the Naps is another of the "bugs." None of the old army stuff goes. Every situation seems to be met in the correct fashion, and the mixed style of playing of the Naps is certain to cause consternation in the ranks of the enemy.

Walsh's Pitching.
In place of these players, Cleveland will dispatch into the fray six or seven batters who have a liking for spitball pitchers, three of that number having brand of moisture laden deceivers offered by Ed Walsh, himself.

Nap Lajoie, for instance, tackled by Walsh in four games, last year. He batted .308, making four hits in thirteen times at bat. Joe Jackson did better. He found Walsh for six hits in nineteen times at bat in five games. His record being .308. Manager Birmingham, who won five games from Walsh by his individual stick-work in 1911, came back and took down an average of .335. Harry Davis did not allow him to play in the first two games, but in the third game against Ed Walsh and used him merely as a pinch hitter in the next three and made five hits in twelve chances.

Jack Graneley was somewhat mystified by the spitball king, getting but three hits in four games. Turner went against Walsh in two contests. Two 9 to 5.

NAPS COUNT UPON WINNING INAUGURAL

Famous White Sox Hurler Usually Finds Cleveland Is the Hardest Team in League for Him to Beat.

CLEVELAND, April 6.—The array of batters that Manager Joe Birmingham will send into the opening game of the season against the Chicago White Sox on April 10, is likely to give Ed Walsh one of his hardest battles of the year. Cleveland always was quite successful against the famous hurler. Now, and then he has succeeded in disposing of them as if they were amateurs, but year in and year out, he has lost more games to Cleveland than he has won. Added Joss used to take his measure quite frequently, and Fred Falkenberg also acquired the habit to a less pronounced degree, however. Then Vean Gregg joined the Nap warriors, and he went through two seasons with scarcely a defeat at the hands of the White Sox. Incidentally, he was pitted against Walsh in many of those contests.

Birmingham may have no Gregg to pit against Walsh in the inaugural game, but he will have a bunch of batters on hand for whom Big Ed has no terrors. Walsh tackled Cleveland five times last year. He won three and lost two. His victories came early in the year, when he had Butcher, not hitting a home run, and he was with Milwaukee. Neither catcher, Land or Carlech, is expected to make much trouble for the eminent Chicago hurler.

Benefit Tomorrow To Equip Ball Team

Financial aid for the Ardmore Athletic Club baseball team is the object of tomorrow night's big boxing, wrestling and athletic exhibition program, which will be commenced at the clubhouse promptly at 8:30 o'clock. In the main part of the evening "Buddy" Ray, 130-pound champion of Washington and the Police Gazette belt, will be pitted against "Skeets" Dimmick, 130-pound ex-champion of the Navy. Tommy Von Garlem, of the Ardmore Athletic Club, who pinned "Billy" O'Brien, the crack 150-pound wrestler of Washington, at the last club encounter, will be pitted against Gus Roschick, of this city. In a finish match, best 2 in 3 falls, The wrestling preliminaries comprise two far: 135-pound youngsters who are anxious to show their speed; they are Ben Shaw, of the Ardmore Athletic Club, and Young Barnaco, the Md.
